

martonick law
defending your future

(509) 334-4808
207 East Main Street
Pullman, WA 99163

DEFENDING YOUR FUTURE - We understand that being accused of a crime or infraction threatens your future goals and plans. Our office is experienced in finding ways to avoid future issues with insurance, school, immigration, job searches and more. Visit us at our office located in downtown Pullman at 207 East Main St., or we can assist and arrange representation over the phone: (509) 334-4808

For your convenience Martonick Law is located in downtown Pullman and available over the phone.

In your best interest Mr. Martonick has the experience to take your case to the next level if necessary.

KAVANAUGH V. HARRIS Civil rights lawsuit against City of Pullman police officer for excessive use of force (taser) resulting in $25,000 settlement to plaintiff.

STATE V. GURSKE Firearms enhancement case argued before Washington State Supreme Court resulting in favorable 9-0 decision.

STATE V. GARDNER Whitman County Superior Court case holding that campus police cannot patrol dormitory hallways hoping to find evidence of criminal conduct.

STEVE MARTONICK

As a defense attorney in Pullman since 2001, Steve Martonick has actively sought to protect the rights of Washington State University students and the citizens of the Pullman community. Through this experience he has developed an intimate knowledge of the local legal practices. As a result Steve Martonick can focus on giving his clients the individualized defense that they deserve. Mr. Martonick is an established and bold criminal defense attorney. He is known for vigorous and experienced representation of his clients by the courts and the prosecutors.

DUI/DWI - Minor in Possession of Alcohol - Infractions and Traffic Offenses - Felonies - Clearing Records - Possession of Marijuana

CONSULTATIONS ARE FREE